Commentary

The market was short between 7am and 11am, then long for the remainder of the day except for a short peak during the early evening. Interconnector Trades alleviated thermal import constraints in the South East during the morning to 8am. Some BM Action overnight to early morning to manage thermal export constraints in the North of Scotland and in Wales. Overnight Voltage Control in the Midlands supported by Trades and BM Action. Some Trades and BM Action overnight for RoCoF.
